HAVE YOU SEEN THE LITTLE PIGGIES?

Earthgirl's pugnosed piggy banks provide a pleasingly plump receptacle for pennies. Each piece is thrown by hand by potter Jill Wiener, a.k.a. Earthgirl, who fled the city for the greener pastures of Sullivan County several years ago. Now she spends her winters in a big red barn, making whimsical—and pricey—one-of-a-kind elephants, monkeys and piggies. Kids who want to collect the whole menagerie should start saving their pennies right now. $90, at www.totshop.com.
